GRANT PORTFOLIO

Sport provision and public health ethics in an era of pandemics (DAiSI, Doctoral Training Network in Sport Ethics and Integrity (DAiSI)

(November 2023-May 2027)

Principal investigator for this project aimed identify and evaluate the ethics of imposing restrictions on sports activities in order to promote individual wellbeing and prevent the spread of the disease and safeguard public health. The DC in this project will (1) identify citizen's rights to engage in sport; (2) identify duties of public authorities in relation to such provision; (3) develop a framework to balance public health objectives and individual well-being concerns; (4) critically evaluate recent guidelines and approaches of federations and regulatory agencies.

Values and Norms underlying Eating Disorders in Elite Athletes (KU Leuven BOFZAP Starting Grant, Project Code 3M240437)

(October 1, 2024 - September 30, 2026)

Principal Investigator for this research project aimed at investigating the values internalized by elite athletes with eating disorders, and ascertain to what extent if any of these values differ from the values in the general population of individuals with eating disorder. Investigating elite athletes' perspectives and values will inform the understanding of what factors contribute to eating disorders in elite athletes, and constitute barriers to help-seeking, diagnosis and treatment in this population. <https://research.kuleuven.be/portal/en/project/3M240437>
